

Vector Manual Arts Table

Product Overview

The Vector Manual Arts Table is a purpose-built woodworking and training bench designed for schools, TAFEs, and technical workshops. With a solid open-frame construction, integrated woodworking vices, and a generous work surface, it delivers reliability, and functionality in demanding manual arts environments.

Engineered for group learning, the Vector provides a sturdy, low-maintenance solution that withstands daily use while supporting hands-on trade skills development.

Lead Time

Please inquire regarding lead times
Made to order
Fully assembled
Vices optional

Standard Frame Colours

Black (Texture) Charcoal (Satin) Blue (Gloss)

Other Dulux powder coat colours available on request

Key Features

Heavy-duty steel frame – Fully welded tubular steel legs

with powder-coated finish for maximum durability

Secure Foot Plates – Designed for safety and stability.

Worktop – MDF surface for a flat, durable, and replaceable work area

2 x quick-release woodworking vices (1 per side) pre-installed

Fixed height 850mm – suitable for standing or stool-seated work

Workshop Ready – Built to handle heavy workloads, ideal for educational applications.

Low Maintenance – Easy to clean and maintain with replaceable top options

Size – 2400 x 750 x 850h

Ideal for

Manual arts classrooms
Secondary schools and training facilities
Woodworking and carpentry programs
Group-based technical training environments

Quick Release Woodworking Vice

- 2 x Quick Release Woodworking Vice (1 per side) – pre-installed – AS STANDARD
- 4 x Vice as optional